

MAIN LESSON BOOKWORK

Hi Everyone,

Today is structured much like yesterday in terms of catch up work. I have also posted the next step for the art project, so please look to that page for what to do next.

Please make sure you work from Last Week's Catch up Page and/ or Catch up Page from Week 2, and if you are completely caught up, please listen to today's story below and do a drawing or piece of writing about it into your Main Lesson book.

I look forward to seeing all your caught up work on Thursday!
